

THE LATEST

View:

We are happy to announce that the Audience Award Winner this year is Daisuke Kiyomiya for his piece Macaron displayed in Brooklyn Bridge Park. The award was presented by Festival Director, Lisa Kim.

Thank you to everyone who voted through Instagram and for all the other amazing shots you all shared with your followers and with us by using #DAF13

Thank you as well to our fantastic jury, who selected the winners for Best Open Studio, Best Exhibition, Best Project, SCOPE Prize and Grand Prize, as well as to Jane Wentas for presenting them.

2013 DUMBO Arts Festival jury included: Ingrid Chu (Forever & Today), Charlotte Cohen (General Services Administration), Sherry Dobbin (Times Square Alliance), Savannah Gorton (Forever & Today), Dara Greene (Scope Art Fair), Valerie Hegarty (Artist), Paddy Johnson (Art Factory), Todd Masters (Masters + Peavin), Jennifer McGregor (Wave Hill), Erka Ramee (Artist), Sara Resman (NYC Percent for Art), Steve Sacks (btfirms Gallery), Eugene Tsa (Brooklyn Museum), and Dexter Wimbory (Curator)

Last but not least congratulations again to the 2013 DUMBO Arts Festival Winners!

Best Open Studio - Saya Woolfalk, Smack Mellon

Best Project - Kyle Goen, Who's Chelsea Manning?

Exhibition - Bryan Zanisnik, Meadowlands Picaresque, Smack Mellon

Grand Prize - Bryan Zanisnik

SCOPE Prize - Saya Woolfalk

Audience Award - Daisuke Kiyomiya

Photos courtesy of Jane Kratochvil and Frank Riley